

In Science at

1. Children are curious and interested in discovering the world around them.

2. Children value and appreciate the significance science has in their lives and their future.

3. Children are inquisitive and encouraged to explore and ask questions.

4. Children acquire knowledge and retain lifelong scientific facts about the world.

5. Children carefully plan and actively carry out practical investigations.

6. Children are enthusiastic scientists, who apply various enquiry skills in every lesson.

7. Children are confidently able to articulate themselves and use a variety of scientific vocabulary.

